MORTAL DANGER

WHAT IS THE DARK FOREST?

- Game theory answer to Fermi's Paradox: Where is everyone?
 - Liu Cixin – The Three-Body Problem
 - Quinn's Ideas – Three Body Problem (excellent presentations)
- Given the Drake Equation, there should be so many other civilizations out there that they should be quite difficult to avoid.
 - Why do we not see them?
- Consider European encounters with stone-age peoples;
 - Other civ's likely to be far more advanced: this is an extreme & total danger
- Solution: Keep quiet; do not announce yourself; stealth recon
 - Keep quiet, but look around: what to do with someone you discover?

This article is about Frank Drake's equation. For other uses, see Drake equation \(disambiguation\).

The Drake equation is a probabilistic argument used to estimate the number of active, communicative extraterrestrial civilizations in the Milky Way Galaxy.^{[1][2][3]}

The equation was formulated in 1961 by Frank Drake, not for purposes of quantifying the number of civilizations, but as a way to stimulate scientific dialogue at the first scientific meeting on the search for extraterrestrial intelligence (SETI).^{[4][5]} The equation summarizes the main concepts which scientists must contemplate when considering the question of other radio-communicative life.^[4] It is more properly thought of as an approximation than as a serious attempt to determine a precise number.

Criticism related to the Drake equation focuses not on the equation itself, but on the fact that the estimated values for several of its factors are highly conjectural, the combined multiplicative effect being that the uncertainty associated with any derived value is so large that the equation cannot be used to draw firm conclusions.

Equation [\[edit \]](#)

The Drake equation is:^[1]

$$N = R_{*} \cdot f_{\text{p}} \cdot n_{\text{e}} \cdot f_{\text{l}} \cdot f_{\text{i}} \cdot f_{\text{c}} \cdot L$$

where

- N = the number of civilizations in the Milky Way galaxy with which communication might be possible (i.e. which are on the current past light cone);

and

- *R*_{*} = the average rate of star formation in our Galaxy.
- *f*_p = the fraction of those stars that have planets.
- *n*_e = the average number of planets that can potentially support life per star that has planets.
- *f*_l = the fraction of planets that could support life that actually develop life at some point.
- *f*_i = the fraction of planets with life that go on to develop intelligent life (civilizations).
- *f*_c = the fraction of civilizations that develop a technology that releases detectable signs of their existence into space.
- L = the length of time for which such civilizations release detectable signals into space.^{[6][7]}

DARK FOREST PRODUCES PARASITES

- Dark forest theory results in a single parasite species occupying everywhere: extract and destroy
- Dark forest theory encourages parasitism, or the behaviour of parasitism...
 - Channelers and astral travelers encounter other civ's routinely; are they simulated by the parasites?
 - They often speak of groups "here to help humans"
 - not likely, anything too good to be true likely is: don't act, wait to be saved - psychological destruction
- Advance scout technology to weaken opponent – fake science!

SOPHISTRY – PARADOX AS SCIENCE

- In the Three Body Problem series, the enemy civ sends “sophons” to its target rival civ
 - Early arrival scouts which hamper development by inserting illegitimate pathways of scientific investigation which lead mostly nowhere although they produce some results which make them seem worthwhile
 - Our technological development has only produced mass mental slavery and dumbing down – bread and circus, mental retardation, but spectacular!
 - Began with Einstein inserting paradoxical thinking as a means of scientific reasoning – hijacking of relativity theory, then same infected quantum mech.
 - Now, we must radically alter the environment to stop altering the climate
 - With terraforming schemes that would end life on Earth – paradox is OK now

 - “SRM {“solar radiation management”} offers the possibility of cooling the planet significantly on a timescale of a few years.”
 - “Politicization around climate change has obviously been the huge driver” of policy gridlock on reducing carbon emissions, she said. “And so I think trying to avoid politicization around geoengineering is also important.”
 - “Policymakers in the European Union have signaled a willingness to begin international discussions of whether and how humanity could limit heating from the sun.”
 - “Climate change is already having profound effects on the physical and natural world, and on human well-being, and these effects will only grow as greenhouse gas concentrations increase and warming continues,” the report said. “Understanding these impacts is crucial to enable informed decisions around a possible role for SRM in addressing human hardships associated with climate change.”
 - “European Union leaders opened the door to international discussions of SRM. It also followed a call by more than 60 leading scientists to increase research on the topic.”
 - “This report also signals that the U.S. government is supportive of well-governed research, including outdoor experimentation, which I think is quite significant.”
- From the timesofisrael.com:
 - “In possible climate breakthrough, Israeli scientists engineer bacteria to eat CO₂.” “Decade-long research at Weizmann Institute could pave way remove excess global warming CO₂ from air.” “In a remarkable breakthrough, researchers at the Weizmann Institute have produced a genetically engineered bacteria that can live on carbon dioxide rather than sugar.”
- From the U.S.A. President Biden’s “climate envoy”, Senator John Kerry, on carbon dioxide:
 - “Even if we get to net zero, we still have to get carbon dioxide out of the atmosphere.”
- From Bloomberg Business:
 - “What if We Blotted Out the Sun to Fight Global Warming? “Cutting off sunlight to fight climate change could be necessary”.

 - “the idea is to build something that would stay between us and sun all year long...” – at the Lagrange point between Earth & Sun
 - “This is one of the most ambitious, but also one of the sanest, options we could possibly consider when it comes to combatting global climate change.”
- Peer Review of my proposal that we use spherical Earth where Sun creates climate (discussed fully in Planet Wars book); impossible responses:
 - “The proposed spherical model is incomplete and quite wrong in so many ways.” re: That the Sun creates the climate: “This is nonsense.”
 - “there should be some solid theoretical evidence provided to support your proposed idea was a better method which should lead to some scientifically significant results.”
 - “no compelling evidence or analysis for a new approach or model; much more extensive underpinnings are required for new scientific claims”
 - “Our journal deals with subjects that would be adequate for university teaching, not with scientific quarrels or alternate interpretations one might conceive like you mention.”
 - “I believe that your approach should first be vetted by experts who could validate or invalidate it.”
 - “The arguments made for consideration of an alternative mean energy budget model are ad-hoc and without justification or mathematical rigour.”
 - Variously 1v1 @ me: “heat flow from hot to cold only does not apply to radiation”; “you seriously don’t understand a cartoon with planar geometry?!”; “cannot communicate my disrespect; dangerously ill-informed model”; red-herring (misleading distraction): “not worthy of attention - the gcm’s use a spherical Earth”
- They really do want to end all life on Earth. They really do mean it! They’re going quite out of their way to justify it and engineer it while pretending environmental virtue with fake science!

SCIENTISTS PLAN TO BLOCK OUT THE SUN

PRACTICAL POSITION

- Many ways to dissect it, many avenues to look at, different results from scientific materialist perspective vs. ontological mathematical, etc.
- Set all that aside, and consider the most efficacious perspective: the perspective which would help us the most, frame the situation the best, even if it is wrong, for the time-being, until new or better or additional analysis/empirical data may be developed, even if such developments completely overturn the current position; for now, let us have a framework to help us survive:
 - We are experiencing a Dark Forest scenario with an alien civilization which found us a few thousand years ago, and it is silently pretending to be us using NPC tech/Forum tech/sophons (etc.), to deplete humanity of intelligence, and it is now moving to a global depletion of life on Earth using “humans” to do it
 - We must treat the situation in this way, consider our survival under the most profound and dangerous threat – facing total and utter enslavement & destruction

WE CAN STOP THIS!

- We can stop it with REASON
 - Which means, with Ontological Mathematics!
 - But, how, practically? The books are done, the authors are gone: think of all the shenanigans this OM movement has suffered – explanation!
- By demonstrating an experimental result which the prevailing paradoxical paradigm cannot explain with a paradox
 - (although they will try)
 - A result which can only be explained with Ontological Mathematics
 - thereby overthrowing the paradoxical paradigm
 - thereby giving OM the opportunity to replace it and correct the ship of human science & reason, saving us from destruction

I NEED YOUR HELP!

- I know the experiment to do, I know how to do it, I have a place to do it
- I know physicists & mathematicians who can help do the math
- We will save not only humanity but carbon-based life on Earth
 - Will also open a pathway to an Ontological Mathematics “Star Trek” future
- It sounds incredible, but look around: this is the situation we’re in; our science is at a complete stop: paradox = nihilism
- We are at the crux, we are at the moment
 - I may die soon, or otherwise not be able to actualize this potential
 - On the precipice! The outcome of my future may determine the fate of ...
